

MONTHLY WORKSHOPS

Our Instructor

Emily Frantz is a recent graduate from the University of California, Irvine with a major in Theatre. She has been doing musical theatre since the age of 6 when she was introduced to it at Hutton's Hamlet. She has worked at Hutton's Hamlet for many summers as their Assistant Director and has also choreographed for the Oakdale Junior High and High School Show Choirs. She is excited to pass on her knowledge and passion for performing to the kids and teens near her hometown.

February Classes:

Intro to Theatre

Taught by Emily Frantz

Feb. 1st- Feb 12th, MWF (4:00-5:30 PM)

Our Intro to Theatre class teaches the basics of theatre. This class will cover many of the things we do in our Summer Workshops: stage directions, improvisations, personal expression, using the voice, group theatre games, and stage movements. Although we will not be working toward a full play performance (due to COVID restrictions) we will spend some time applying what we've learned in short improvisations.

 Please wear closed- toed shoes.

10 spots open. Ages 7+. No experience necessary. $150

Intro to Clowning

Taught by Emily Frantz

Feb. 1st- Feb 12th, MWF (5:30- 7:00 PM)

The Art of Clowning will guide students through the activities in finding their inner clown.

Eli Simon, professor at UC Irvine and author of "the art of clowning" states, "We all have an inner clown living somewhere inside us. Clowning reveals profound aspects of your own persona - often called your "inner child".

Simon goes on to explain, "if you have trepidation about being reduced to a maniacal clown that scares the neighborhood kids, fear not: there are many beneficial reasons to clown because it steadily encourages you to: perform with a high level of energy and commitment, stretch your range of playable actions, and make moment-to-moment discoveries"... and much, much more! Sessions will consist of exercises and activities that will bring out your clown in a fun and exciting way! Students will learn what it means "to clown" and who their clown is.

"This was one of my favorite classes to take at UC Irvine" Emily states, "and I am so excited to pass along this fun and different style of entertaining and learning!"

This class requires a red clown nose (provided) and it is encouraged to purchase "The Art of Clowning" by Eli Eimon before attending class. Also, please bring a notebook and pen/pencil to class everyday. Please wear all black (or muted colors with no logos, if possible) and closed-toed shoes.

10 spots open. Ages 7+. Some "performance" experience suggested. $155
